Partnership In Prayer

Greetings Church Family,

One of the most dramatic New Testament stories about prayer is found in Acts 12: 1-17. King Herod is in opposition to the church. James is killed. Peter is imprisoned. Satan's purpose in every age is to silence the voice of the Gospel and the truths in God's Word. However, God's mighty answer is always the working of prayer.

As I read this account, I asked this question. "What can I learn from this as I live for Jesus today." I share three important principles that emerged from the context. They are: the people of prayer, the purpose of prayer, and the power of prayer. First, I'll explain the people of prayer. "(Peter). . . came to the house of Mary. . . where many had gathered to pray." (Acts 12:12). Peter had been incarcerated, so that the message of God would be silenced. Our Lord's response was to bring together a group of men and women to pray. In Acts 12:12, there are three groups of people. Mary represents the influential people, for it appears she was a woman of means and influence. She had a roomy house which acted as a meeting place for the members of the church in Jerusalem. Praise God for the Mary's in church history, and for the Mary's today. They made their homes available for Bible study, prayer, and Christian fellowship. But let's look again; there were the Rhodas as well. ". . . as Peter knocked on the door of the gate, a woman named Rhoda answered." (Acts 12:13). From this, we learn our Lord uses ordinary people to do extraordinary things. The prayers of Rhoda were just as effective and acceptable as those of Mary. Observe once again, there was the "many group." The many represent those present whose names we do not know. These people heard Jesus gladly too! They responded to His message and became church members. Praise God for each one! Anyone can pray who confesses Jesus, experiences the renewing of the Holy Spirit, and receives inspiration and guidance from the Holy Bible.

Mary, Rhoda, and the many, ". . . gathered together to pray." (Acts 12:5). When the disciples gathered together to pray, (Acts 1: 12-14), they were in one accord, and on the Day of Pentecost, their purpose was realized; the outpouring of the Holy Spirit happened. (Acts 2:1). I believe that when Mary, Rhoda, and the many gathered for prayer they were in one accord too! They were praying with purpose; praying for Peter and the work of the church. Any differences had been settled.

Their praying must have been fervent and intense. When people pray together with the same sense of urgency, filled with the same purpose, something is bound to happen. It did! They witnessed the power of prayer. ". . . the inn gate . . . Opened . . . of its own accord . . ." (Acts 12:10). Maybe the people praying at Mary's house were apprehensive as to what would happen to Peter, and more importantly, what would happen to the witness of Jesus' church in Jerusalem. They prayed unceasingly, and there was an undeniable demonstration of God's power.

Mission Statement:

The Mission of the Asheville North Seventh-day Adventist Church is to be an active participant in the Global Mission of the Seventh-day Adventist Church, and to "Live Christ" in North Asheville by developing and emphasizing the concept of Family in our internal and outreach ministries, reaching out to our community with spiritual, educational, social and service activities, and nurturing an atmosphere of scripturally - based growth to prepare a people for Christ's Second Coming.

Peter was released. Our Lord always seems to work far above all that we could ever ask or think; so that we might praise and worship Him. The Bible is filled with God's miraculous answers to prayer. When He answers prayer it is undeniable.

Partnership in prayer involves people, purpose, and power. Are we involved in this partnership? God is looking for recruits. Our church board has designated the week of January 1 - 8, 2011, as a "Week of Prayer." It begins with church service on January 1, 2011, at 11:00 am, and continues nightly, Sunday, January 2 through Friday, January 7, 2011, at 7:00 p.m.. The last service will be at church on January 8, 2011, at 11:00 a.m.. Everyone is invited to attend. Please come as often as you can. As we move ahead into 2011, let's move forward with confidence. Confident in the promise of God's everlasting presence. Confident with His help in mind.

Happy New Year! God Bless. Pastor Ed

Gently Restore—

Just Between the Two of You

- ◆ God calls us to lovingly correct one another (Matthew 18:15).
- ◆ Correcting means more than confronting (Matthew 18:12, Galatians 6:1).
- ◆ Sooner or later, talk face to face (Matthew 5:23, 24).
- ◆ Go when someone's sins are too serious to overlook
 - Is it dishonoring God in a significant way?
 - Is it damaging your relationship?
 - Is it hurting others or you?
 - Is it hurting the offender?
- ◆ Special considerations
 - First get the log out of your own eye.
 - Approach non-Christians gently
 - Respect those in authority
 - Deal cautiously with abuse.
 - Go tentatively ... go repeatedly.

Key Principle: Constructive correction is a sign of genuine love.

Next Month: Take One or Two Others Along

PRAYER CLOSET THOUGHTS

Matthew 6: 9-13 (NIV) – Jesus said... “This, then, is how you should pray: “Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one.”

Our Father in Heaven...

“These words place us at once in the center of the wonderful revelation that Jesus came to make: His Father is our Father, too. They are the essence of redemption—Christ delivers us from the curse so that we can become the children of God.

The opening words of this prayer are the key to the whole prayer and to all prayer. It takes time and life to study them; it will take eternity to understand them fully.

The knowledge of God’s Father-love is the first and simplest, but also the last and highest lesson in the school of prayer. Prayer begins in a personal relationship with the living God as well as a personal, conscious, fellowship of love with Him. In the knowledge of God’s fatherliness revealed by the Holy Spirit, the power of prayer will root and grow. The life of prayer has its joy in the infinite tenderness, care, and patience of an infinite Father who is ready to hear and to help.”

With Christ in the School of Prayer, Andrew Murray (pg 18)

PRAYER MINISTRY NEWS ALERT - READY AND WILLING!

Eighteen of your brothers and sisters are ready and willing to receive your prayer requests. It is an honor to be entrusted with your requests and we thank you for the privilege of praying for your needs.

This is how we will handle prayer requests:

Prayer Partners – Their purpose is to pray for requests that are urgent in nature and require immediate prayer. We have three teams, consisting of three to four individuals per team, and they will function somewhat like a prayer circle.

Prayer Warriors – Their purpose is to pray for requests that may have an on-going need. Your request will be assigned to a particular person who will bring your need before the Lord every day for 30 days. To continue prayer for another 30 days, just submit another request.

Confidential Prayer – Confidential prayer needs will be assigned with special attention to sensitivity.

Prayer requests can be submitted via prayer request card, telephone or e-mail. Request cards will be available in the pews and in the foyer. Place completed cards in the collection plate or prayer request box in the foyer. Telephone numbers and e-mail addresses will be listed weekly in the bulletin.

That’s the plan for now. It is our intention to regularly take a look at what and how we are doing things and make changes and adjustments where necessary. We would look forward to your input and suggestions.

Psalm 69:32-33 NLT “The humble will see their God at work and be glad. Let all who seek God’s help be encouraged. For the Lord hears the cries of the needy.”

Our Newsletter

This newsletter is YOUR newsletter. If you have something to contribute, an announcement to make, a thought, please make sure Dennis Campbell has it by the deadline date (see the calendar), which is generally near the last Sabbath of the month. You can contact him at 775-7291, or babytoothdoc@charter.net

The newsletter is distributed 4 ways:

1. If I have your email address, the newsletter has been sent to that address. If you did not get it via email and would prefer this over being mailed a hard copy, let Dennis Campbell know your email address.
2. Regular mail
3. Copies available at church - mainly for the visitors. If you are a visitor but would like to receive the newsletter, let Dennis Campbell know your address or email.
